Mrs. Jo Helen Hauptman

SEP 12, 1923 - NOV 30, 2013

Jo Helen Ashley Hauptman left her earthly life on November 30, 2013, and went instantly and joyfully into the presence of her dear Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. She was born in Tomball, Texas in September, 1923, to Cora Lee and Christopher Columbus Ashley. She was 90 years old. She leaves behind her beloved husband of 71 years, Charles Allen Hauptman, her son, Michael Hauptman and wife, Sissy; son Ronald Hauptman; and son Gregory Hauptman and wife, Becky. She also leaves her grandchildren, Cynthia Romano and husband, David; Stacey Uptegrove and husband Rusty; Graham Hauptman and wife, Annie; Marsha Snider and husband, Christopher; and Samuel Hauptman. She also leaves two great-grandchildren - Trent Romano and Rhett Hauptman. She leaves her brother-in-law, Kenneth Hauptman, sister-in-law, Gussie Ruedel, along with numerous nieces and nephews and their children. Dear loved ones that have passed before her include her precious daughter, Linda Hauptman Lloyd and grandson, Bailey Hauptman. She was the last to survive her three sisters and four brothers. Jo Helen lived a remarkable life and spent all but her first 18 years beside the 'love of her life', Charles Allen. Together they endured a long separation during World War II, raised a family, traveled and enjoyed many happy times spent at their bay home with family and friends. Jo Helen took up painting at the mid-point of her life and became quite an accomplished artist. She was a fabulous southern cook and was personally responsible for 'frying up' many platters of shrimp that Allen caught in the bay along with hush puppies, French fries and cole slaw - seafood feasts. She was unassuming, generous and the most loving, kind, sweet and caring person you could ever meet. She loved to laugh, play games and socialize. She had many friends that she made through the years and once you were her friend, you were her life-long friend. Together they enjoyed many happy years traveling with their "Holiday Rambler RV Club" and made many dear friends with their fellow campers and, in fact, referred to them as family. She and Charles loved and served the Lord and she was a brilliant light for Him. They were rarely apart. Theirs was a love story for the ages.

Jo Helen was full of grace. Rest in peace dear, sweet, Jo Helen. You will be sorely missed and held closely in our hearts, always.
