Mr. Jose Jorge Cavazos

JAN 24, 1953 - AUG 5, 2014

Jose Jorge "Joe" Cavazos born January 24, 1953 passed away August 5th, 2014 in Houston, TX, with his beloved family by his side. Joe leaves behind his wife of 36 years, Rosie Cavazos, son T.J. Cavazos and wife Lizeth Cavazos, daughter Raquel Cavazos, and his pride and joy grandson Ryan Cavazos; as well as brothers and sisters Ram and Patsy Cavazos, Ruben and Julia Cavazos, Roland and Sandy Cavazos, Sylvia and Manuel Berumen, Elva and Vincent Medina, Alma and Tom Castillo, Norma and Luis Hidalgo and many loving nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by parents Jose Cavazos Jr. and Amelia H Cavazos, mother-in-law Eva Cruz and many other loved ones. Joe was known for his humor, love of motorcycles, classic cars and playing video games and riding go-carts with Ryan. He loved the outdoors, dove hunting, camping and music, especially oldies and spending time with his family. Joe loved Spring time and watching his favorite football team, the Houston Texans, even though he was usually shouting at them. He was a long time union brother, belonging to IBEW Local 716, a Blue Dog Democrat always supporting the cause in every election and woke up to C-SPAN every morning. Joe was a wise man of strong beliefs who was never lacking the words needed to educate those around him. Where ever Joe was, there was laughter. He always had a way of making people smile. In his last days before surgery he spoke about how his life was blessed with a perfectly loving wife, children, and grandchild and how he was able to live with no regrets, loving everything life had given to him. Joe was a feisty little guy. He will be missed and remembered by the many who were lucky to have known and loved him.

Por favor acepten mis más sinceras condolencias por la pérdida de su ser amado. Es tan triste cuando un ser amado muere, aún más cuando se es tan pequeño. El dolor de la pérdida de un hijo es el dolor más grande que se puede sentir, uno se siente como que no hay consuelo a semejante pena, pero si existe, Ese consuelo lo hayamos en la palabra de Dios la Biblia. Deseo compartir con usted unos textos que le ayudaran en momentos difíciles como por el que esta pasando. En Rev. 21: 3, 4, Hechos 25: 15, Juan 5: 28,29, estos textos nos dan la bella esperanza de la resurrección, ya no más lágrimas, ni dolor, ni sufrir. Qué maravilla volver a ver a nuestros seres amados que han fallecidos, incluyendo a su bebe. Espero estas palabras le den cierto nivel de paz y esperanza.

Rose,I am sorry for your loss. While working on minute maid park at the union station entrance many years ago. I found what I believe is Joe's stainless steel pocket knife. I just came across it today again while unpacking after a move. I would love to get this back to the family.My condolences,David Koopman
