Anil went to be with our Lord on Wednesday July 4, 2007 as he finally received his Freedom from his struggle with Cancer. He was buried at South Park Funeral Home in Pearland & his Celebration of Life Service was held at Timber Lakes Baptist Church, where he had attended church for over 15 years.

He was a strong and determined man who never allowed his health to hold him back from the joys of life. He prided himself in his children and adored his parents as he showed pictures he carried in his wallet and bible to anyone who would look. He was very well educated with several years of college behind him. His degree in education took him all over the world and the states and landed him several jobs in the computer industry. His life impacted so many, he had a way of touching people and instilling memories in so many lives. Those who had the honor of meeting him will never be able to forget him.
