She was a member of Easthaven Baptist Church, where she loved attending her Sunday school class and Senior Citizen group. She loved the visits she received from her church family. The visits gave her inspiration and lifted her spirits. Her grandchildren were the light of her life. She spent hours making blankets and quilts for each new child who was blessed to be her grandchild. These were loving gifts that she wanted them all to have and cherish with loving memories. She will be dearly missed by all of them. She touched many lives over the years and had many special friends. There are so many memories for all of us to hold close to our hearts. She will live on in each of us for eternity.
