Mr. Joseph E. Caine

SEP 4, 1934 - FEB 27, 2012

Joseph E. Caine, 77, was born on September 4, 1934 and entered into eternal rest on February 27, 2012. All his family and friends called him "Joe". Joe was a dedicated husband and is survived by his wife for 30 years, Lois Caine. Both husband and wife lived in Bedia Texas for the last 20 years after retiring from Houston Heights area. Joe is also survived by his daughter Cynthia Ann Cole. Joe lovingly helped raise two step-daughters. He is survived by step-daughter Lois Milstead, Son-in-law Mike Milstead and Grandson James Milstead. He was pre-deceased by Step-daughter, Virginia Forehand and Step-son Tommy Forehand. He is survived by Virginia's son, his grandson Tommy Forehand. Joe was a multi-talented person. He was a master mechanic and transmission specialist. He owned/operated several transmission shops over the course of his life. He was also an excellent cook and grew much of his own food up on their 15 acres. He enjoyed doing carpenter work and collected many beautiful guns as his hobby. He was also very much an animal lover and for many years raised and sold Doberman Pinschers. He will be greatly missed by family and friends.
