Mr. Kirk Allan Emmert

DEC 11, 1950 - NOV 13, 2012

Kirk Allan Emmert was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan to Walter and Margaret Emmert. Kirk is the youngest of three siblings. He resided in California with his family for several years before relocating to Houston, Texas. Kirk graduated from Westbury Senior High School, Houston, Texas in 1969. He enjoyed his work as a chemical applicator until his health failed him in 2010. He loved the outdoors and traveling. His pleasures included yard work, car races and spending time at the family lake house. A great joy in his life was spending time with his family and wife at his home in Rosharon. Kirk had a great sense of humor and loved to rib people, especially his wife. He and his grandson spent countless hours riding his tractor and hanging out by the ponds and he lit up every time he was in his presence. Kirk was saved in Christ our Lord August 2012 and was a member of Southview Baptist Church of Rosharon Texas. After a prolonged battle with cancer he passed peacefully surrounded by his family on November 17th 2012. Kirk leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife of 18 years, Sandra; one brother, Kraig (Cecilia), one sister, Karen (Kenneth); two sons, Shannon (Mary), Travis (Julie); a granddaughter, Emmily; and two grandsons, Bailey and Brody. Many nieces and nephews: Sonya (Ash), Seth (Susan), Todd (Kim), great nieces and nephews: Jakob, Kalin, James, Lizzy, Bryce, Addyan, Bridget, Todd, Jr and Cody. A host of friends and associates who will always remember him. A Memorial Service will be held on Saturday November 17th 2012 at 10:00 a.m. at Southview Baptist Church.
