She supported Waymon with his career as they lived in several states eventually returning to Houston in 1974. She enjoyed her retirement years, traveling with family and attending activities at her church. Twila was someone who knew me before I was even born. She was and is someone who exemplified the passage from Proverbs 31:10,28-29 Who can find a virtuous wife? For her worth is far above rubies. Her children rise up and call her blessed; Her husband also, and he praises her: "Many daughters have done well, But you excel them all." We will miss you Twila...for now.
