Cindy Garza posted:

When the family moved in to the neighborhood, Eva would sit outside. She would enjoy everything about that moment and day. You would never hear her say anything bad she enjoyed the flowers the sun the person she was talking to, even the dogs. She just wanted to pour out her love to everything that was near her. Eva will be dearly missed but we know that she is in heaven with God watching down as an angel and taking care of everything and one she loved. The Serna Family
