Mr. John Richard Berlitz Jr.

APR 22, 1990 - MAR 8, 2015

John Richard Berlitz, Jr left this world on March 8, 2015. He was loved by many and will be missed. His life was challenging but he lived it with courage and tenacity and spunk. He valued academics and excelled in all he undertook. John was an EMT at the fire department and was a few months away from receiving his RN-BSN and planned to continue his education to receive his doctorate. John was artistic and creative and full of ambition. John was preceded in death by his Grandmother, Shirley Sirt. He is survived by his mother Stephanie Sirt, brother Jared Sirt, sister Kristen Reese, Grandfather George Sirt, Aunts Sandy Parks, Becky Sirt, Janet Pipkins and Tamara Estep. He is survived by his father John Richard Berlitz, Sr., sister Jensen Berlitz, Grandparents Richard and Sharon Berlitz and Aunt Becky Guillory.

I met John when he was a student in the Pharmacology class I taught at the school of nursing. His thirst for knowledge and drive to become the best possible nurse impressed me a great deal. I want to extend my deepest sympathy to his family and friends. He will be sorely missed. May God bless you and give you strength. Pat Obulaney

My deepest condolences to John's family...I attended nursing school with John, and he was my first partner in our first class. We also worked together on other things, and I found him to be dedicated to his studies and learning, as well as to his work. He was very ambitious. We have lost a great future nurse, and he will be missed.
