So many memories of Aunt Rosie. Always the cut up of the group - a ready smile and joke for everyone. When I was in college, she would visit on the weekends and party with us. Everyone wanted to know when Aunt Rosie was coming back for another visit. She loved to dance! Remember her 90th birthday? Dancing to Lynyrd Skynyrd. I enjoyed that not only did we share a love of dancing, but we shared a love of crocheting.
