Mrs. Margaret Salinas

JAN 4, 1922 - APR 9, 2015

Margaret Salinas went to be with the Lord and her husband on April 9th, 2015 in Pearland, Texas. She was a Charismatic Catholic who rejoiced in the Lord Jesus Christ. She loved joyful songs that praised God, and she was constantly in prayer for family and friends. She was active in the “Healing Ministry” and was a Third Order Carmelite. She loved working in her flower garden and browsing through plant nurseries. She always expressed a simple truth that was founded in Jesus’ teachings, and she loved being around her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She had an undying love for her husband Anthony Salinas, and she longed for the day to be reunited with him in heaven. She is preceded in death by her husband Anthony (Tony), her granddaughter Carol DeLeon, and son-in-law Jim Drab. She is survived by her four sons, Mikel, Jimmy, John, and Freddy; her daughters Rose Marie, Alice, and Helen, and their spouses. She was blessed with twenty grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild, who were influenced by her life. The family wishes to thank Sherry Pate, Mina Torres, and A’med Hospice staff, who helped us provide loving care for mom during her later years. Memorials, in her name, can be sent to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Grade School, 6703 Whitefriars Drive, Houston, Texas 77087

I had been going to give Holy Communion to Mrs. Salinas once a week for about 2 years, and I just want to say she was such an inspiration to me, especially at the beginning when she still understood why I was there. She was always so enthusiastic when I asked her if she was ready for Holy Communion. She was always ready for Jesus. You have my deepest sympathy. Joan Hutchison

Take comfort that you will always have loving memories that you can continue to share with your siblings and children. Large families are such a blessing especially at this time. I know that you all are very close and can rely on one another at times like these. Love and peace to your family, Helen. from the Ankenbrucks

To the Salinas family: Our prayers are being sent to you from the MidWest. Your loss will be Jesus Christ gain as she is with our God. From my distant observation you Salinas children should have no regrets as you gave your mom the love she deserved. You were extremely lucky and blessed to have your mom for as long as you did. God bless you all The Kachur Family Niles Michigan
