We lost a good one! I'll always remember your cheerful personality and sweet tooth. A donation was made in your memory to Caring Critters (an animal assisted therapy organization) that I've belonged to for 20 years now. What a wonderful service!

My thoughts & prayers are with you for your loss, Sally & Helen, during this difficult time. My friendship with Ray since the early 80's has been a sweet & memorable one, which I would always remember with fond memories. I have always had much respect for him for his kindness, compassion, smiles, & gentle demeanor. He had been blessed with a caring & loving daughter Sally & a sweet & beloved wife Helen, both have taken such great care of him all these years, & particularly the past couple of years. I have lost a special friend & will miss him dearly. Grace Koo

Lois Fay lit a candle in honor of Raymond.

Words cannot fully express the sorrow we feel after hearing the passing of Ray. He was a wonderful husband, father, dad and a friend to so many people. He always brought 'color' to a room whenever he entered. I know he will be deeply missed (but never forgotten) by those who knew him. May the Lord richly bless and comfort you and your entire family during this most difficult time. Our most sincere condolences, Lois & Doug Fay
