Mr. Jesus Faz Jr.

JUL 16, 1958 - DEC 17, 2015

Houston native and life-long union member at the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local Union 716, Jesus “Jesse” Faz, Jr. passed away Dec. 17, 2015 in Houston, Texas at the age of 57 after a courageous battle with cancer. He was surrounded by his family in his final moments.

He is survived by his wife Kathleen Faz; four daughters Angelica and her husband Chaeyik Jung, Foxy and her husband Kevin Gauthé, Monica and her husband Jacob Carlsen, and Jessica and her husband Matthew Franklin; brother Raymond and his wife Anna Faz, sister Janie Faz, and sister-in-law Mary Villareal. He is also survived by grandchildren Chase, Jesus, and Auvie Carlsen; Lane Gauthé; Dax and Bo Jung. He is preceded in death by his parents Guadalupe and Jesus Faz, Sr. as well as brother his Gilbert Villareal.

Jesse dedicated more than 30 years of his life to the IBEW Local Union 716, first as an electrician then as a business organizer. A staple in the local union community, he also taught countless apprentices at the Houston Joint Apprenticeship and Training Committee program. Whether in the classroom, on the job site or at the negotiating table, he was known for his sharp tongue and even sharper business sense. Going above and beyond the call of his job, he made it his personal mission to mentor young electricians and ensure the next generation of union workers knew both the demands of their job and the history of the where they came from. He also gave back to the community he came from, organizing and working on crews for Habitat for Humanity as well as countless other benefits. He mixed his love of smoking barbecue with his passion for giving back by cooking for many Local Union 716 benefits and events. In his personal life, he was a loving husband and father. Known as grandpa or “Pop Pop” to his grandchildren, he shared his passions of fishing and hunting with his family. A strict man, he instilled a strong work ethic and deep appreciation for life in his daughters. He taught them to be strong-willed, tenacious, and to relentlessly pursue their dreams. At the end of the day, his girls and his grandchildren were his heart.
