I am so sorry to have just found out about Barbara. I also lost my mom in December. Barbara and I worked together at HISD. She was my teaching assistant and friend. We shared many funny and interesting home visits and just our days with those special children. She brought joy to the children, but also to me. I loved her very much.

My sincerest condolences to Barbara's family. I met her in the Old Sixth Ward, where she still had a house. We chuckled over some local chickens someone's tenants had a couple of doors down. I enjoyed visiting with her in the neighborhood and also on Facebook. May you find peace and comfort.Leigh Hollins MizeHouston, Tx

My dear Barbara, oh how much i'm going to miss you. After recently reuniting, we had such a good time laughing, sharing old family memories. I'ts going to be hard to get used to you not being a phone call away or on FB. But I do know one thing for sure, there is a new Bright Shining Angel in Heaven who is making everyone laugh and spreading so much love! And remember Barbara I Love You More!

It was so nice getting to know you thru stories of my sister Annette Harris Lopez who went to Dow Elementary and Reagan High School with you. My parents Oleta and Charles Franz were friends with your parents and you remember me coming over with them. Also thru Facebook! God bless you and I look forward to meeting you again in Heaven. Til then rest in peace! 🙏

Barbara was such a sweet, fun, always smiling friend. She would do anything for anybody. We knew each other for many years, from the time when Erin and Mandy became best friends. I will always remember how she would ask me, "How's our girl?" asking about our youngest daughter, Jennifer. She was caring and loving. She recently offered Bruce and I a place to stay any time we wanted to, even though her and Billy were going through a lot of health issues. I regret not spending more time with such a special person. I will dearly miss her!
