Our family was very sorry to hear of my precious cousin, Ernest. I loved him very much. I remember him from a very young childhood because he would come to mom's home and visit often with his brothers. He was special to me in many ways. I will never forget that smile and always laughter when he was around. Always, Mary Bertram Krenek and family

Rick, I just learned of your Dad's passing this afternoon and want you, your mom and brothers, Kim and the boys to know that you're all in my thoughts and prayers. Though I wasn't around him that often, I know how much you loved your Dad (and your mom) from the many good things you had to say about them from time to time. Like I miss my parents every time I think about them, I've grown to know that they are now in a better place at home with the Lord, and know also that your Dad is now in that better place.Love you as my own brother,Larry
