So very very sorry to hear about the passing of your mom. Such a beautiful person, inside and out. I know the pain in losing someone so young and so close to you and your husband like she was. We do not understand, but need to realize we will be reunited when our Heavenly Father comes back to claim his own. So pleased that Tiffany and Kristi were able to be with you. Take heart that you have been a wonderful and caring daughter--traits you received from your mom. People tell me to try and remember only the good memories and that sounds like a good idea, but in reality, you will need to grieve as long and hard as you need to. She is with God now, no pain or worries. Love you dear Amy.

Dearest Sweet Amy & Family, there is so much I want to say. I am so sorry for this great loss of yours, losing you precious Mother, and grandmother to your son. We all know how much your mother adored you, Scott, and William ... and of course your father and sister too. Your mom was a beautiful woman, inside and out. Such a kind and gentle soul. I am so grateful that I was in town over Spring Break last month and got to go over to your mom's house and visit with her and you. That is a tender memory that I will never forget. Amy, you have been a wonderful daughter and your mother loved you VERY, VERY much! I could see it in her heart that day, how thankful she was to have you, helping her every need. You have been and continue to be, a true blessing in her life. May God help comfort you, Scott, and William during this difficult time. And may God give you great strength in the days to come. I love you my beautiful friend Tiffany

Aunt Dora. You were a great Aunt, and a true friend to me. I will hold your memory close to my heart, along with Bill and Cindy's. I know you are with them now. I will always remember our time together, in Virginia, and Maryland. Seeing the sights, walking around the old parts of Hagerstown, and that park. Gettysburg, Monticello and the rest. You will never be forgotten as long as I live. Rest in peace.
