Uncle Chuck---- I will miss you so much. We loved having you here in Washington for a few years..... It was such a blessing. You were loved by many at our church, they remember you as one who loved God & praised God thru every situation. You put God at the center of your life----- I will always remember the many times you drove to the store and asked if there was anything we needed. We sure loved our chips and dip!! 😊 Josiah was crazy about you and always helped you wash your car..... I will never forget the love you have for people.... You were always loving, kind, understanding, forgiving and selfless. You wanted the best for each and every person you came into contact with. I love you and will never forget you uncle. Can't wait to see you again someday!!! ❤️ Leyah

Oh dear Bro. Chuck, the gentle giant, a Christian in the true sense of the word. Now we reminisce about the wonderful times we spent together. When we moved to Fife, WA we wondered why we rented such a large house. When you needed a place to live, we saw how God orchestrates everything. Those years you lived with us, how we enjoyed your chili with mushrooms, and how we laughed ourselves silly when you would say "Lets go to the City." Always a kid at heart, you could span the generations and befriend all. What a blessing to go to Heritage Pentecostal Church with you where you were a member of the SALT Senior Apostolics Loving Truth group. Praising Jesus through every situation of your life, both good and difficult, you let your life shine. You and Randy going to every car show possible and talking cars til I just left the room! Sharing the word of God together in our living room! What a legacy. And we see it lived on in Buddy, Kevin, your precious son. That is what matters. Passing the torch, living the life, letting the light of Jesus shine through you. Now you are shouting on the hills of glory, in the presence of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Save a place for Randy and I at the banquet table, as we believe it won't be long before we see you again! Many years have passed since we met when we were just kids in 1972.....all of those years when we would be apart and then see each other again it was as if no time had passed, there was a bond in Spirit. Thanks for being instrumental in showing me the truth and living it in front of me. You will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with you Kevin, Amy, Madison, and Summer....may you feel the arms of the Comforter around you as you say your goodbyes to your father, a man greatly loved and blessed. Maranatha.....until then. Love always, Kevin's Auntie Dee Dee and Randy Sawyer Fife, WA

Memories of Chuck! All my adult life there has been 'Chuck' It would be easier to list times in my life where Chuck hasn't been around. I can't eat potato chips without thinking about Chuck. I can't go over the speed limit in my car without thinking about Chuck. I can't do my splendid comb over without thinking about Chuck (and just when I got mine good, he abandoned his) I can't share my testimony of coming to faith in Christ without talking about Chuck. Chuck is always been there -sometimes in the background, but I have memories of Chuck in Lorain, Duluth in San Diego and Seattle and just recently in Houston. When my sister Jane disappeared from Duluth in the late '60s suddenly Chuck appeared! Chuck was fun Chuck was friendly Chuck was loving Chuck was a good friend to have Chuck was faithful Chuck spoke good words Chuck had a perpetual youthfulness about him ... Even though we say goodbye in this life, in my mind and in my memories Chuck will be forever young To say he will be missed is an understatement Love you buddy ~ Mel

Chuck lived an adult life that endured much physical pain...yet he loved to have fun and joke around right up to the end. He never gossiped or talked bad about people and he had a lot of compassion for those who suffered because he knew suffering. During his last years on earth, they were hard, harder than most could endure, yet he never complained. He used every chance he could to witness to people about the Lord he believed in and whom he had great faith in. I was so impressed with his faith when he was in a very difficult situation and even though he was in the 11th hour of his trial he had faith God would see him through and God did! I am so glad that I have that memory of this kind man. While he was in WA state we were very close, he helped me and I helped him. Every Saturday my Dad would spend the day with me; Chuck we come over... while I cooked he would sit and visit with my Dad.. and draw him into conversation and make him laugh. He was so kind and patient with my Dad. Another memory is my hallway to the upstairs had gone unpainted for to long, even with his bad legs and back, he helped me with that hallway...now I looked at it and think of those days...we painted and laughed and enjoyed each others company. Chuck loved his son, Kevin and was so proud of him, always spoke highly of him...I can't imagine how hard that day was for him when he heard of Kevin's accident not knowing if Kevin would make it or not, Chuck being in such poor health himself having rush to the hospital....Life was not easy for Chuck but he made the best of it... not finding fault with people or complaining about his circumstances. I am so saddened by his passing, to young. I love and miss you Chuck and proud to be called your friend, I will see you on the other side. Janie

Just heard this afternoon of Chuck's passing. I know his departure will leave a great vacancy in the heart of all who loved him. Our prayers are with the Sidlo family as they mourn the loss of this wonderful man.

When I think of memories of Chuck ... It really covers the span my entire adult life. There has always been 'Chuck'. He appeared out of nowhere after my sister Jane had disappeared from Duluth ... I remember the first day I met him. He seemed so much older than me, back then a few years was a lot. Overtime I think I've caught up with him. I can't eat a potato chip without thinking of Chuck, I can't hit the gas pedal on my car without thinking of Chuck. And to this day when I do my comb-over I think of how he taught me to do my hair. I associate Chuck with Lorain, Duluth, San Diego, Tacoma and Houston. I can't share my personal testimony about Christ talking about Chuck. Chuck was nice Chuck was kind Chuck was fun Chuck was faithfull remember my last visit with Chuck in Houston. Just to old friends; but some how in my mind and in my memory Chuck will be forever young. I'm happy for Chuck, he left us all still wanting more...
