I still think about you every single day and I wish you were here dad. You were always so good to me even when I didn't realize it, I was only around 11 when you passed away and it's still the hardest thing I've ever had to go through. I miss you everyday and I hate that you're gone. I'm still glad I can still hear your voice calling me "Kenny", I remember four wheeler rides and learning how to shoot your crossbow, you got me into singing and karaoke, I miss your barbecues even though I hated barbecue when I was young but I would give anything to experience it one last time. Grief is such a hard thing to deal with because it's almost been 10 years and sometimes it still feels like yesterday. I love you pepaw, I hope you're somewhere beautiful and I hope you're proud of me.

I still miss you so much, you were like my dad and I wish you were still here. It still feels so fresh and I hate not being able to see and talk to you. I hope you're in a beautiful place I love you pepaw/dad. Love, Kenny

JAMES (JIMMY) is my brother and we lost him a wk ago''-- he owned JIMS barber shop in pearland for yrs-- he had a good personality and was funny;;-he and I called each other often- his last call to me -was thanking me for the cheerful cards I mailed him often-he had a big heart and gave to a lot of fund raisers and gave cuts free to families going thru rough times. will miss him very much;
