Tobie was born in Jourdanton, TX on April 16, 1933 where she lived her life until she moved to Houston to raise her family. She married her husband, Joe Medina, Sr. , and had three wonderful children who she cared for and loved. Her life revolved around her family. Her husband passed in 1988 after which she continued to care for her family.

She was a very active, independent, Texas woman who lived life by three values: hard work, honesty, and religious commitment to God. She is an inspiration to her family and left us too soon in life.
