Michael was a special person. He and I kept in touch. He stopped by my house one day when he was up in this area visiting one of the girls. Hugh had not been gone too long, and I had a western hat Hugh wore sometimes. I asked Michael if he wanted to try it on, and if it fit he could have it. Needless to say it did fit and he was so glad to get the hat. He thought a lot of his Uncle Hugh. I will miss his phone calls. All of you have my love and sympathy.

Mike was one of the dearest and sweetest man I knew!! We will always remember him chugging up the hill/or down with his John boat (which was also blue)..he also lived in a blue house...guess he liked blue..you think?? He helped my husband put up a metal storage shed..needless to say, there were lots of screws, parts left when they finished, BUT the shed stood the ravishes of time. They also installed a new storm door..babysitting five young girls under the age of 8 while we had one of the worst electrical storms ever!! Jean and I had gone to the movies figuring they could handle what we did everyday. We have truly missed them living at the bottom of the hill in Richmond but knew their hearts were in Texas.Jean and Mike are now together for eternityBye my friend, until we meet again and start our tall tales again!!
