Pastor Sam Vargese posted:

I know Simonchan from my childhood because our families were so close. He might have carried me while I was a baby. I had the privilege to learn from him all through these years. Even after coming to US without fail I used to get a call from Simonchan and amamma every week while he was in West Plains, MO. It was one of the very few calls which we received during our initial years in US. We could see his love for the Anandappally church family and his eagerness to keep relationship with every one of them. We remember the visits that he made to us while we were in Tulsa, OK and the time we spent with him in West Plains and Houston. We thank God for the fellowship we had together in India and in US. Without doubt we can say that he loved God and he shown that love to others by caring and teaching the word. At this time we pray that God strengthen Kunjumol amamma, George chan and Ammachi, Sajan& Jincy, Sam&Vinita, his loving siblings and all other sorrowing family. Encouraging everyone to hold on to the glorious hope that God's children will be together with Him in eternity. Pastor Sam Varghese & SuniZion Gospel Assembly
