I love and miss you Great Nana. I think of you often, and hope you'd be proud of the person I've become. Not a week goes by that I don't remember you and Granddaddy and the love you both showed me.

Kathy Johnson posted:

I was 14 years old, when I first met Rose Mary. She was such a beautiful woman and so strong. She made me feel immediately at home, just like she did everyone who came into their home. She cared for me like a mother, at a time when I really needed it. I was fortunate to have her as my mother-in-law and Nana to my two girls. In remembering Rose Mary, I would also like to send deepest sympathy, to her loving husband Julian. I would like to honor him, for his love and caring devotion to her. You can't think of one without thinking of the other. Few couples have the honor of experiencing love like Rose Mary and Julian Clark shared. They both carried a twinkle in their eyes, when they spoke to or about one another. Of course they had their differences, but it always came down to the loving commitment they shared. True love stands the test of time—they have proven this, and I thank them for setting such standards for their children, grandchildren, and others. Rose Mary was an incredible mother, wife and daughter. She made sure if someone in her family needed anything, they were taken care of. I'm grateful she allowed me to share part of my life with her. She will be forever in my heart and memories. Rest in the comfort of God's arms as angels watch over you - My love, Kathy
