If this is the Brad Toland Baker originally from Lynnwood Washington. I was his girlfriend in junior high and early high School. We met the sixth grade at hilltop elementary. I remember his birthday was January 22nd. Had a brother named Greg a sister named Chris and his dad's name was Frank. Can you please let me know if this the same Brad? My condolences and sympathy for your loss.

I was told he was sick a week prior to his death. He wasn't one to go to the doctor, from my understanding because of malpractice. Week the autopsy report came back though they said he was diabetic and passed away due to complications of diabetic ketoacidosis.

Oh wow. May I ask what happened. I moved to DFW in June 1983 and lost contact with him. I was shocked when i found this out last night. I always remembered your dad's birthday.

Hi! My name is Heidi, Brad's daughter. Don't know why but something spoke to me to check my dad's obituary just now and saw your message. The answer to your question is yes, this is the same Brad. He moved from Washington to Texas sometime in the early-mid 2000s.
