Carol had been a dear friend since 2008. I am going to miss her smile, her soft heart and our lunches together. I am missing her already. She had been an avid Astros fan and a Texan fan. Who watched every game and read every article in the paper about them. As a matter of fact that was the only TV she watched. Besides all the VHS she had recorded going back to 1980's of her favorite shows. If thebTV was not on she was enjoying her music from her collection of CD's. Carol loved God, family (which she has a very loving family that took care of her). And of course friends and animals....which I am not sure which one was first. Kathy Luttrell

Carol & John were our neighbors in Green Tee in Pearland. We always enjoyed her Christmas reception & viewing her Winter Village. My kids still talk about it & they are adults now. When I walked my dog, she looked for Carol's dog for weeks after they moved. Heaven gained a special angel.
