Granny, I love you. I am working so very hard to make things right. Im so grateful you visit me in my dreams; I wake up wanting to call you each time. I still have your phone number memorized by heart. You have always been my guardian. I hope one day I will make you proud. I miss your hugs and kisses so much; they were priceless and you were a gem. My words cant fathom how sorry I am you had put up with me all those years. Jesus knows I love you so much; everyday I am trying to be a better person. I am trying real hard and I hope you forgive me for how terrible of a granddaughter I was.
