Michael was a very kind and gentle person. Always in good spirits when visiting the admin/payroll center at Richmond and NHC. Michael will be greatly missed by those who dearly loved and knew him well; especially his airline family. Rest in peace Michael and one day we all will meet somewhere in the free spirit world. Michael brought us food when Gene was sick and also helped us get refunds on non-refundable airline tickets. He was a very sweet man. I think of him every time I walk in front of his window overlooking Steel Street. Rest in peace Michael, Gene and Sandy Williams

Michael was our neighborhood's guardian. Working from home at his post in the front window, he was perfectly positioned and ever alert to spot problems on the street. He will be greatly missed. Rest In Peace, sweet guardian.
