I read somewhere that one of the greatest tributes we can offer the departed is to simply remember. Isabel Allende said it best, "There is no death, daughter. People die only when we forget them," my mother explained shortly before she left me. 'If you can remember me, I will be with you always.'

Kirk was a good friend that I worked with for many years at Schlumberger. He processed hundreds of jobs for me and was always there for anything I needed. His attitude and sharp wit always made things fun even in critical situations. I'm so sorry to hear of his passing. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. Mark Statesir
