Bobbie, I know you are so happy and you're finally at peace ,I know you wanted to go home for a very long time, & I know Robert E., who was there to greet you and now you are together eternally. People ask me , why you call her Bobbie girl. "Bobbie (girl) got her nickname, because she married , (Robert E.-brother Bobby) both would answer when someone called. So fitting since we had so many Bobby's in our immediate family. I will always remember day I was playing piano, Bobbie girl, told me it was way to loud, and quiet down, I remember I made comment ,:"Oh, my god/ goshdarn" Bobbie girl said we Do Not Use Gods name in Vain, (I was about 5 or 6, mom & dad were gone, Robert E. Just home from Vietnam, didnt really know either of them, anyway next thing I remember was Bobbie girl putting Jergens soap in my mouth, worse taste ever, (nightmares & still to day I do not buy or use Jergens soap. When I see it , it will always remind me of you, it only took 1 time -soap, I have never said that word ever again. I will always remember the baby blankets & baby outfits be crocheted for both of my children, we still have them they'll always be a treasure and will be passed down to our great-grandchildren. We will see one another When God comes for us. I know you are walking Streets of gold. Singing "Victory In Jesus" your favorite song you always wanted me to play...God Bless Family & Friends during this time. God's Timing is always On Time.

My sweet Aunt Bobbie. She is now surrounded by her loving husband, her brother, sisters and parents. Karen, Michael, and Rick, I know you will miss her terribly. I ask God put his loving arms around you and give you the strength to get through the days to come.
