Mr. Milton P. Wilson

MAY 16, 1937 - SEP 3, 2018

Mr. Milton P. Wilson, 81 born on May 16, 1937 passed away on September 3, 2018. He is preceded in death by his wife Melba Wilson, parents Milton and Coque Wilson, sister Vicki Anderson and brother Jerry Wilson. He is survived by his brothers Terry Wilson, Danny Wilson and sister Hazel Wreyford. His children Kim Wilson, Kevin Wilson, Laurie Vasquez and husband Danny, Brent Wilson and wife Lorraine. Grandchildren Alyssa Smith and husband Vinson, Laine Wilson, Riley Wilson, Eric Vasquez, Kaylie Wilson and Macy Wilson and one great grandson Maddox Wilson.

Milton served his country honorably in the United States Air Force from 1955-1959.

He would say that his life began in 1965 when he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. He devoted his life to witnessing and serving God. He was involved in too many ministries to note them all, but he became very active in Gideon ministry and preached at the Star of Hope mission once a month for the last 50 years. He memorized large parts of the Bible and loved to recite at his church home Sagemont.

His devotion to the Houston Astros must be mentioned, from a young man selling popcorn and peanuts for the Colt 45's to the Houston Astros World Series win, his love for the game of baseball was absolute.

Visitation will be held Sunday, September 9, 2018 from 5:00 PM to 8:00 PM. Funeral Service will be held on Monday, September 10, 2018 at 10:00 AM. Milton was an inspiration. He drove a church bus for First Baptist Pearland when I was a 11 year old kid and through this ministry he saw many kids like me saved. Milton and Huey Raney were a dynamic duo on that bus. Many years later as a grown married man I returned with family and there was Milton still teaching and singing for the Lord at First Baptist Pearland. He still remembered me and guided many of us young men over the years through the Gideon ministry, Choir, and teaching Sunday school. One of my favorite memories is Milton singing "Man of Sorrows" acapella at Shadycrest Baptist on open mic Sunday night service. He would be the first to tell you he was not a perfect man but to me he was one of the finest examples of a servants heart for our Lord Jesus Christ. He ran the race of life as well as anyone and now has entered into his reward. Thank you Milton for many years of brotherly love Christ like. Thank you Wilson family for allowing your dad and to serve the Lord his whole life through.

Thank you so much for your kind words Mr. McDonald. My granddaddy was just the best and these memories of him have brought us so much comfort 💜

Milton Wilson was a man who loved God's word. I will never forget the Sunday morning when the preacher at First Pearland commended Milton for memorizing several long passages in Romans as a means of encouraging the congregation to commit God's word to memory. Without notice Milton was asked to come to the pulpit and demonstrate. He quoted the entire sixth chapter of Romans that day. I can remember following along with my Bible open in my lap and I can give testimony to the impact that had on my life. Later called into the ministry, I rarely preach without having committed the passage to memory. I owe that to Milton Wilson. RIP my friend. Bart K. Thank you so much for your kind words about my dad. We are so comforted to know he was so respected by so many. And I know with all certainty he is singing in the Lords choir today!

My brother was quietly funny. This may sound strange, but when we went to my sister's funeral, Milton, brother Terry, wife Bonnie, brother Danny, me and my husband Ronnie drove us all to San Antonio to her funeral. Afterwards we all went to get a bite to eat and then proceeded to drive home and my brother Milton sang all the way home. Old honkie tonk music that we were raised on. He was so cute. He loved to play pinochle also. The Wilson's are very competitive people. We do not like to lose at anything, to a fault. He has thrown cards before. 🤔 He loved his coffee too. ☺️ He was a inspiration to many, especially me.

I am so thankful and proud fir the Christian way my dad like lived. He and my mother cherished our family and we grew up in the church. Many times I find myself thinking how glad that we had this church upbrining. Daddy always gave us the best advice he knew and often would say "The Lord will never put more on you than you can bear". I remember those words so often! Dad really enjoyed serving God and would always recite a Bible verse to use as an example to make a point! I know he loved us children but he really cherishef his grandchildren and attended quite a few recitals and school functions! I was blessed to live with him and along with my sister and my neice, take care of him through these last days. I know he is joyful to be in the presence of Jesus and his wife!! Thank you everyone for your prayers and we love every one of you!!
