About ten years ago I was fortunate enough to have the honor of becoming close friends and coworker with Fredi. The first time I came across Fredi, he just smiled and said what the (explicit) are you lookin at. Jesus Christ your huge. I could only laugh. As the years passed we grew closer and helped each other at work and laughed at the cars we couldnt fix. As more time passed Fredi and I parted ways only to wind up back together at Dacoma. Fredi had advanced his skills way beyond my teachin when we first met, that I the teacher became the student. I will hold you and your daughter in my heart always. And every ride I take on my motorcycle, I promise you I will throttle it loud for you and Jazzy. May the mighty creator keep both of you at his side. So in end I say to you my final goodbye my brother to you and your daughter.Fredi Leon, I JP Galvan here by release you of all your duties at Firestone Dacoma, you have earned your peaceful resting destination, fly higher than any eagle in the sky and touch the sun,God has chosen you to become an angel, to help guide us all into the after life.
