She especially remembers her life in Manvel riding horses in the open fields and pastures in Manvel. This was at a time the population of Manvel was less than 100. As the youngest of the family she was also the most spoiled according to her brothers and sisters. Aunt Judy also enjoyed her many trips to Galveston; staying at Gaido's Seaside Inn. We always had to stop on the way home to pick up a couple of dozen Gingerbread cookies.

Aunt Judy was a Master Quilter and made many quilts. Over the past year she gave away most of her quilts. She made the quilt that is on her casket. She was a giving person, jewelry, quilts, plants and furniture.
