Ms. Dora Dalia Grote

NOV 26, 1948 - JAN 29, 2019

Dora Dalia Diaz Grote was born November 26, 1948 in Houston, Texas. She passed away on January 29, 2019 at the young age of 70 in Webster, TX. Dora is preceded in death by her father Julio Diaz and mother Mary Diaz. She is survived by her sister: Dorothy Rice, brothers: Danny and Bobby Diaz, children: Teresa Grote Lee, Diamond Grote Thompson, and Robert Grote grand children: Trinity and Tyler Lee, Sophia Grote, and Winter Thompson. She will be missed by numerous other family, friends, and neighbors. The family will receive friends and family on February 4, 2019, 5:00 – 8:00 pm at South Park Funeral Home at 1310 N. Main St. Pearland TX. The funeral service will be Tuesday February 5, 2019 at 10 am also at South Park Funeral Home. Dora, Dorita, or Lita as her grand kids would call her was a kindhearted soul, who had a smile for everyone, and made everyone feel at home. She was very involved in her church Lakewood Church. She enjoyed her time working at Air Products in Pasadena and learned a lot about the chemical industry. She made this evident everytime we had to wait for a train coming down highway 3. She would read the side of the rail car and say things like oh that ones soda ash and that one belongs to UTLX and on and on. We were never bored waiting on a train. She loved to spend time with her grandchildren, gardening, decorating, and of course baking. Dora loved to bake, she would make cakes and cookies for everyone. She is our mother and we are biased and we shouldn't eat sweets because we are sweet enough already but the cakes and cookies she made were the best cakes and cookies we have ever had. We will only give recipes out on a "knead" to know basis. She also loved gardening. She was always outside watering her plants especially her roses. Her favorite flower was a yellow rose and she was so good at gardening that both her thumbs were green. Instead of Miracle Grow all she needed was Miracle Grote. ☐ She will be sorely missed. On the subject of flowers, they can be sent to South Park Funeral Home at 1310 N. Main St. Pearland, TX.

Dora will always have a place in my heart. She was a friend but more like my little sister. There have been few in my life that have touched me like she did. Always there to listen and comfort, always there to say a kind word. Always there when you most needed someone. I thank God for all she has done. I'll miss her comments on Facebook and all her likes on my page but one day I'll see her again when I join her in the presence of the Lord we share. Until then I will hold to all the wonderful memories I have of this very special lady.

Your Mama was A Beautiful, Amazing and Loving Person. Like A Kid waiting for my gift from Santa-
-But better. Every year I couldn't wait to receive & read your mom's Christmas Letter. Letting us know how you all were doing and how her grand-children were doing. How Amazing your mom took the time to write these Beautiful Loving Christmas Letter's. Rick would say your mom made the BEST Pan de Polvo cookies just like your Grandma. Your Mom will live in our hearts and
