The Testimony of Roy Porraz

Roy Porraz was born on September 7, 1931 in Austin, Texas. He was the fifth child of Estanislado and Eugenia Porraz. James Crane, a Texas Baptist Missionary, shared the Gospel of Jesus Christ with his family and Roy accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. He became a member of Primera Iglesia Bautista in Austin with the Reverend Carlos Paredes as his Pastor. It was here that he met his soon to be brother-in-law, Reyes Rojas who introduced him to his sister Matilde. They were married on May 19, 1962 at Primera and raised their two daughters with the teachings of the Bible and teachings of the most revered Hno. Paredes.

They soon moved to Houston, Texas seeking employment opportunities where he spent the rest of his life serving as a deacon at Primera Iglesia Bautista of Pasadena, Broadway Baptist Temple, and First Baptist Church South Houston. He loved to share his faith with everyone. If you ever met him, he would have asked you if you had accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, not to judge anyone but because He believed this to be the greatest blessing in his life. He worked hard to provide for his family and was generous in his giving to those in need. He never wanted to take credit for his generosity because he believed to be a humble servant of God's blessings to share with others to the glory of God. He will be missed by friends & family.
