Mr. Brian Young Kwon

JUL 5, 1954 - JUN 29, 2019

Announcement of death

Brian Young Kwon passed away peacefully in his sleep on June 29, 2019 at 11:14 AM in his home in Pearland.

Biographical sketch

He was a business-man, entrepreneur, loving husband, and devoted father. He always thinking positively. Even on his deathbed, he would crack jokes like faking falling off the bed. Most importantly, he never viewed failure as a negativity. When taking on new businesses and renovations, he knew they would become successful, no matter the difficulty. Failure was just part of the learning process.

Brian was also very hard-working and independent. Ever since he came to America with pocket change and no understanding of English, he worked his way up, saving money and never taking a day off. I stress never taking a day off. As a result, throughout his lifetime, he successfully owned and ran 11 clothing stores in multiple malls, 3 convenience stores, and 5 rental properties. Though, all of his sacrifices and accomplishments were done with his family in mind. Even though he is gone, his legacy lives on with his sons and wife. He made it his life goal to make sure that when he passes, he had something to leave behind so his family didn't have to suffer. His last word was, "Together."
