Joyce Latimore Burdette

FEB 17, 1948 - AUG 21, 2019

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,

Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

From the first time we met in the early 2000's we became the best of friends. Throughout the years we have often said how God had surely put us together. Joyce and I have laughed together and cried together, we shared our life experiences and shared personal reflections together. She kept in contact with me practically daily and I with her. She was and still is an intricate part in my life. Even though I can't lay my eyes upon her sweet face or hear her oh so SWEET, "heyyyy", I feel her deep inside my being. I'm grateful to have known her and able to call her MY FRIEND. My prayers are that we shall meet again and that her children continue the love for one another that she had for them all. My friend is resting now. And I want you all to know that knowing and loving her has made me a better human being. THANK YOU MY HEAVENLY FATHER FOR PUTTING US TOGETHER. SUSAN HILL
