Martiniano "Cruz" Cavazos

JUL 2, 1941 - OCT 31, 2019

Martiniano Cruz Cavazos, 78, was born in Karnes City. He lived his life between Pearland and Kennedy, Tx. He retired from the City of Friendswood. On his last day of employment he promised never to wear a watch again. Our Dad was a simple man, his favorite outfit was a white t-shirt and pair of blue jeans. He loved spending his days outside building just about anything. He is survived by his children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and extended family.

Old friend and neighbor, great man, really loved being out there in the country, grew up somewhat around there during ten year and more, such a great person, can't tell you how many times this man has helped my family out there from help getting a a semi out from a ditch to burying our beloved large and small furry loved ones, this man was and is the definition of good.

Cruz LOVE his property near Pawnee. It was his JOY. We had wonderful meals in Kenedy after visiting our Dad in the nursing home. He had long visits with my brother in Pawnee even took recently a wild Chili Plant for his meals. Cruz was our family Historian. Will remember our hours long phone conversations we had for years. Your cousin MRG

We will miss Cruz very much. As we drove out to our property (CR 182), the first thing we always did was check to see if Cruz was home. He always had a smile on his face. We truly enjoyed his companionship. Pawnee friends, Gilbert & Priscilla Torres
