Nancy and Deborah, There aren't enough wonderful adjectives to describe your Mom. She was one of the kindest, generous, genuine, humble, giving, strongest, smartest (I could go on and on and on.....) women I have ever had the pleasure with whom to become friends. Ron and I send you and your family our deepest sympathy and prayers. We miss her already. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you. We just got back to the states so please text and let us know when we can give you a call. Love you! Robin and Ron Anderson

Dear Nancy and Deborah, Losing your mother is a most difficult time in life. Sandy loved her family with her whole heart. She always had a smile for me even when she wasn't feeling well. She is no longer in pain but in the loving arms of her Lord and Savior. I am reminded of the hymn, "I'm but a stranger here Heaven is my home", Sandy is now home in heaven and someday you will be together again. Our deepest sympathy and love, The Limmer Family
