Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set on me, I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little--but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low, Remember the love that we once shared,
miss me--but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
and each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
miss me--but let me go.

We will truly miss him. Faye and Kenneth were like second parents and dear friends. We regularly had dinners at each other's houses. They treated our children like their grandkids. He was like a part of our family. Rest In Peace dear friend. Martha and Bob Varino

I am so sad to hear of Kenneth's passing! Like my sister said ... he and Faye were "bonus" grandparents to us. I have so many fond memories with Kenneth that I will cherish forever. He and Faye were "family" and I feel we were truly blessed with them. My thoughts and prayers are with all of his family & friends! Rest easy Kenneth! Until we meet again
