He was my father and when I was younger he took me to this play for the little mermaid. He was the best dad I could ask for and no one could replace him. Love you dad, Nayeli

I remember when Pokemon: The First Movie came out and Wesley De Jesus and I went to see it. The scene where Ash gets turned into stone really made him cry. I recall glancing to my side and watching him cry along with Pikachu (I felt the emotions too if course) then he noticed me watching him so he elbowed me, wiped his tears, and tried to play it off like he wasn't crying. Lol. He might of seemed tough on his exterior, but he had a very soft heart. What a gentle soul he is. :heart: I'ma truly miss you, Bubba. Will be sharing more later.
