Sandra Stevenson posted:

Aunt Alta will always be remembered by me for her larger than life personality, her enormous love for her son and family and her ability to stay calm and handle every situation. She was the supervisor. She was a great story teller, never met a stranger. She loved being the welcome committee at a Bed and Breakfast in Mt. View, Arkansas where she met and talked to different people from all over the country. She kept control of her brother in some pretty hairy spades games and I personally loved when she said things to him that I couldn't. (Ha) Hug each other for us, and save me a seat at the Spades table. Until then, Sandra
