Gabriel Ambrose Haskin

FEB 15, 1976 - OCT 6, 2020

Gabriel Ambrose Haskin was born on February 15, 1976 to Fred and Gerry Haskin in Houston, Texas and he departed this physical world on October 6, 2020.

Gabe was a happy, loving and inquisitive child. He was gifted with superior intelligence. He was passionate about spending time with his family doing things they enjoyed like playing Xbox, ping-pong, riding bikes and teaching them about everything in life. He enjoyed watching movies, especially comedies. He had a zest for life and did thorough research about all his passions such as working out and wholesome nutrition - eating to live.

Gabe was a member of Jesse H. Jones Vanguard High School graduating class of 1994. He played basketball and golf. Gabe was captain of the golf team for three consecutive years and won 2nd place in district for golf. School participation included the Junior Engineering Technician Society, French Club, Spanish Club, Science Club, GENTS (a community service organization) and the National Honor Society.

Helping others was something Gabe thoroughly enjoyed. He spent valuable time as a softball coach for St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church little league team. Some of his volunteer activities were Friends Helping Friends Club and the Docent Program, leading tours for the Houston Museum of Fine Arts.

Gabe graduated from high school with honors receiving full academic scholarships to Morehouse College, the University of Texas, Texas A&M and the University of Oklahoma. He was also awarded an academic scholarship to Lamar University and was selected to be a Mundt Scholar in the Department of Civil Engineering.

In August 2002, Gabe graduated from the University of Houston - Clear Lake with a Bachelor of Science Degree in both Accounting and Finance. A dedicated employee of UPS for 26 years, he

My deepest sympathy and prayers to the Haskin Family. I met in Gabe in 6th grade at Lanier and stayed friends throughout high school in the Vanguard program at Jones. I remember him as always being a sweet, gentle, easy-going guy with a million dollar smile. May he rest in peace.

I can not believe it. He was a beautiful boy. I went to Lanier with him. He was shy, around me, mild mannered and sweet. Bless his family.

I am so sorry. I spent my entire school career with Gabe. We went to elementary, middle and high school together. He was so full of life. I will always remember his pleasant attitude and wonderful smile! May he rest in heaven!
