Maria Dolores "Lola" Vega

JUL 1, 1960 - DEC 15, 2020

Beloved Wife, Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt and friend departed this earth on December 15, 2020 at the age of 60. She was born in Houston, Texas, to Rabi Casas Reyes and Zoila Piedad Reyes.

She is preceded in death by her Father, Rabi Casas Reyes, Mother, Zoila Piedad Reyes, and Sister, Maria Christina Sanchez.

She is survived by her husband, Noe Vega, her children, Monika Turner (Keith), Eric Vega (Marlene), John Paul Vega, and Nicholas Vega (Yazmin) and grandchildren, Adalee, Alison, and Amylee.

As a resident of the City of South Houston her entire life, she graduated South Houston High School in 1978 and served in health care prior to serving her hometown for over 15 years in the municipal services. She left a great legacy of love for her family and was married to her husband for over 37 years. Most of all, however, she was proud to have been able to give her children an even better life. If you knew Maria you would know her love of Barbie Dolls. She loved adding to her growing collection and admired the latest trends.

Maria will be remembered as a caring and loving individual who put the needs of others first. She was faithful and committed to serving God and the Holy Catholic Church as a parishioner of St. Augustine Catholic Church. She was also a strong woman who served as a great example to her children and the community. By working tirelessly her entire life, she was able to overcome obstacles endured by many and was proud of her many achievements and accomplishments. We love you Mom and we know you are resting in the Kingdom of Heaven.

Lola's fun sense of humor is something I will never forget about her. We grew close for a season in the mid 80's enjoying life, music, and fashion, hair and make-up tips from her brothers Franc and Marti. Lola loved and supported her family and was so proud of her children. My heart goes out to the Reyes and Vega family. May God comfort all of you and embrace you with His Peace that surpasses all understanding.

Martin L Reyes posted:

One morning I found you in eternal sleep;I tried to wake you as I began to weep,But all my pleas you could not hear.Oh, if I could have only kept you near,Away from the voices of those who went before,Who beckoned you to come to that distant shore.I find it so very hard to believe.That you have gone and I must grieve;I call out your name -- you answer not,And I look for you in every familiar spot.Everything seems so strange and surreal.I ask every day, is it a dream or real?Where are the soft brown eyes of affection?Where is the laughter and talk of childhood reflection?Where is the loving care when I was sick or sad?Where is the generous soul for which I was glad?Where is the forgiving and understanding heart?Where are the bonds that were there from the start?I miss all the little ways you showed you cared,For there were so many good moments we shared;Looking back on my life's assorted scenes,I realized you taught me what love means indeed.You were my trusted confidante and best friend,On whose loving support, I could always depend.I look at your smiling face in all my photos.Memories flood my mind as I touch the mementos.From the happy times, you and I have had,But now these bring tears and make me sad;For the time together went by in a wink.Life was not as long as we'd like to think.Sometimes memories bring comfort and make me smile,But there are times when grief takes over for a while.Friends offer gentle words and prayers to console.And tell me what has happened to your loving soul.Can it be true what they say of time healing grief?Is it enough when they say death has given you relief?Can we believe what others say of a better place,Where do our beloved ones rest in God's warm embrace?I should be happy you're free of pain and sorrow,And rejoice that you'll always have tomorrow.How can I then be so heartbroken and selfishly cry?Return to me from that peaceful place where you lie!Now I look down at your name on a cold, hard stone.That says little of the loving light you have shone.It tells nothing of the beautiful person you wereAnd only serves to remind me of the painful loss I endure;But I know your kind soul wants no tears or pain.Instead, you'd want warm memories and love to remain.Although I cry and stand grief-stricken by your grave,I promise not to forget the loving memories you gave,But still, I miss you so very much, my sister dear,And your caring words I once again long to hear;My heart's only solace is one day I will see you as before,Beckoning me to come to join you on that distant white shore.
