Vimala Paulraj was born in Rangoon, Burma as the third child of Mr. R.V. Joseph and Mrs. Minnie Joseph. Her parents were originally from Nagercoil, South India. Vimala met her husband P. Paulraj at a National Missionary Society (NMS) in 1954.

They were married on July 6, 1959 and were blessed with two boys, Joseph, and David, and a daughter, Shobi. At the previous NMS camp, Vimala accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior.

With two college degrees, one in science and one in teaching, she served as a high school teacher in India. In the US, she entered the health care field and retired as a hospital medical lab technologist in New York.

Vimala is survived by her husband, three children, twelve grandchildren, a great granddaughter, and three sisters.

Heartfelt condolences to Paulraj Mama , Prathap, Sugi and Shobhi and their families. Will remember Vimala Athai as a loving, simple, humble and an outspoken woman who had all the virtues of Godly woman. Remembering the days i spent with her during my visit to her place and her visit to Dubai. She was my mothers sister in law who shared the same name Vimala. She was a loving host and remained the same till her end. My prayers for comfort and strength at thus time for each one of her family members, specially to Paulraj Mama.

Dear Dr. Paulraj and family, We are saddened to hear the news of your beloved wife Mrs. Vimala Paulraj going home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was good friend of us and she always showed her love to us with her lovelier smile and caring concerns. My wife Chitra became very close friend to her through her volunteer work in Zarephath church and later in the crochet group at the North Brunswick senior center. We really miss her and join you all with your sorrows. Let the Lord bless you all with His Peace and guard your hearts and minds in Jesus Christ. Jesus says to you all "I am the life and resurrection" . With that Easter hope we console you all that we will all meet her in the second coming of Jesus Christ Richard & Chitra Satyavan

We are extremely saddened to hear the demise of our loving Vimala athai. She was a loving, cheerful, Affectionate and caring person and a great blessing to the family. Have a lot of wonderful memories of her and we thank God for her wonderful life. She will surely be rejoicing in heaven. We ray that our Lord will give everyone in her family, the strength to bear this loss.

Heartfelt condolences to Paulraj Mama and family. My mother who is Paulraj mama's only sister also had the same name Vimala and shared a close bond with Athai. Athai was an outspoken and loving person. Remember the lovely days i spent with her in Newyork when she shared her testimony of salvation during her college days in WCC. She visited us in Dubai and i had great time with her. Nearly 62 + years of her blessed life with Mama will speak volume of herself. She was a role model for many. May God give Mama , Prathap, Shobi, Sugi and their families .May God give strength to overcome this great loss. May her soul rest in Paradise.

I am deeply saddened by the loss of my loving friend Wimala. Bhaskar and I cherish the friendship we had starting many years ago at Emmanuel Methodist . I remember the double dates and signing your marriage certificate. Our friendship continued in New Jersey as families grew . Thank you Paulraj Annan for the kind words that were also spoken at Bhaskar's funeral last year. I will never forget . With Love and prayers to you and the children, Padmini
