Chris was born in Pasadena, Texas, to Dorothy and Charles Clemons. He grew up playing sports and especially loved baseball. He was part of the team that won the State Championship and the National Championship. He was “the natural”. His children and grandchildren were the joy of his life.

He was survived by his daughter Amber Clemons and grandchildren Taylor James, Collin Edward and Maddy Ray; his daughter, Heather Madro and grandchildren, Tyson and Lily. His brother and sister-in-law Charlie and Patsy Clemons and niece Jana; his sister, Debbie Wright and nephew, Justin and his wife Amy along with their 2 children; his brother Jim (Ace) Clemons and many loving cousins in Texas and Florida as well as countless friends and business associates in the Electrical distribution business.

Chris brought joy to every room he entered, he never met a stranger. He had life-long friends from Pasadena, Texas, who will miss him dearly. We are grateful for his big heart, his bright smile and especially his deep faith. He leaves a huge hole in the hearts of those who have loved him throughout the years.

Chris, you always had a smile on and a joke to tell. Every time we were all together I would laugh so hard my cheeks would hurt. I guess we will miss our dinner at Top Water... we were looking forward getting with the Knights Of The Round Table and sharing stories. I was looking back and we have known each other almost 60yrs. I suppose I will admit... over all the years I had a crush on you a time or two. We will miss you and your wonderful sense of humor. There is peace knowing we will all be together again as Our Lord promised. RIP Dear Friend we will miss you... Debbie and Gary Sanders ...❤️

Chris, what a wonderful friend you were. We will never forget you. All the fun we had together, going down to the track, betting on the horses. Chris won a lot! He loved betting the number 9. We will bet the number 9 at the Kentucky derby this year. We will miss you. Love you Chris! Your friends, Jimmy and Vicki Smith.
