A fterglow

by Helen Lowrie Marshall

“I’d like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I’d like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I’d like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I’d like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun
of happy memories
that I leave when life is done.”

My favorite memories of Royce are growing up as a child, and all the camping trips we took together with my Mom and Dad. Cherish them.

Growing up, my most favorite memory of Royce was when she would come over for coffee and chat. She would sit and crack pecans into a butter container. We had a pecan tree in the back yard, and she loved pecans. She had a good sense of humor and I enjoyed writing to her over the last couple years, sending letters, pictures, and Christmas cards. She would tell you the truth and not sugar coat. We miss her. Rest in peace, Royce. We love you.
