Amy Ann Herrera

JUL 24, 1970 - AUG 3, 2021

On July 24, 1970, Amy Soza arrived in this world in Houston, Texas. On August 3, 2021, she passed from this life to meet her Savior in Heaven. Having finished her race, she now awaits the return of our Yeshua (Jesus).

This loving wife and amazing mother of four children never wanted to be separated from the family members she loved so much. Just being with them, even if it was “window shopping,” gave her such happiness. Eating at a restaurant with those she loved was another delightful time for her and she loved how Isaac took her out to eat and spending time with her. She enjoyed spending time teaching Jared how to cook and they both loved cooking even now Jared knows how to make the family specialty- Mexican rice.

Accompanied by her daughter, Nina, the two of them loved to get their nails polished. But with her daughter, Tiana, it was musical instruments. Amy was a truly gifted musician. As a little girl, she learned to play the piano by ear. Playing the piano, singing with great passion, and dancing with her husband were some of her favorite past-times. But if she was with a group who enjoyed word games or bingo, Amy would be the first to join them.

Kind, funny, faithful, smart, and loving, she was an amazing friend to those who knew her well. And what an amazing cook she was! Everyone loved her specialty—Mexican rice.

As she studied the Word of God with her family, her faith grew by leaps and bounds in the last ten years of her life. How she enjoyed gathering with others on the Sabbath and feast days. While she truly loved children and spending time with family and friends, home gatherings were her favorite. That was probably because she was such a wonderful hostess.

Worship, praising God, and deep discussions about the Word were so meaningful. Because she loved God with all her heart, soul, and mind, many people were touched by her words of wisdom in their time of trouble.

My Dear Friend,I miss you.I know that's what everyone says at a time like this, but I don't know what else to say. When I say, "I miss you," I miss everything about you.I miss your hearty laugh, especially when we would laugh for 10 minutes straight about something that only you and I thought was hilarious.I miss your wise words because you always knew exactly what to say when I needed your help.I miss your spontaneity. You were always the first who was willing to go on a trip to Tennessee or New Mexico.I miss your hugs, whether they were for a happy reason or a sad one, hugs always made everything better.I miss your selflessness, always willing to drop everything in your life to help your friends, even people you never have met (like my mom, who love you dearly for your kindness).I miss talking to you about the Word of our ELOHYM. I miss your heart because not only were you selfless, but you were generous, kind, and loving to all of those around you.I miss you, AmyYour friend,Thien
