Larry Wayne Moore left his earthly home and entered his heavenly home in the evening hours of Wednesday, September 8, 2021 in Pearland, TX. He was born January 9, 1950 in Deport, TX to William Bob Thomas and Sarah Margaret (Eison) Moore and was baptized in the Baptist church.

Larry first met the love of his life, Ann Alvis Moore at Pearland Jr. High School. Years later, they met again while both worked for Doyle Tyson Pipe and Lumber. They were married on October 20, 1973 in Brookside Village, TX. Larry and Ann raised their three sons mostly in Brazoria Country, where Larry worked in law enforcement for 43 years.

From 1983 to 1984, Larry was a Lieutenant at Marion County Sheriff's Department and from 1984 to 1985, he was a Lieutenant at Gregg County Sheriff's Department. In 1986, the family moved back to Brazoria County where Larry would eventually retire from Brazoria County Sheriff's Department in 2012.

Larry was a devoted husband, and a loving and caring father, grandfather (PawPaw) and great-grandfather. Larry thoroughly enjoyed cheering for the Houston Texans, Houston Astros, and Texas Aggies, but what brought him the greatest joy was being his grandchildren's biggest fan in
