He is survived by his parents, Stacy and Debra Nissen, his grandparents, Ronald and Janet Nissen, sister Rhea Ann Pertl and brother-in-law, Eric Pertl, brother, James Murry Nissen and sister-in-law, Tara Nissen, and brother Ronald Benjamin Nissen. Garrett was an outgoing, people person who made friends instantly. He had the “gift of gab,” and would talk (at length) to anyone, anytime, anywhere, about any subject. He was a talented musician and an accomplished golfer. He collected knives and guns, and was an avid reader. He loved to travel with his family and spend time outdoors, especially in the Hill Country of Texas. Garrett was quick to learn and master anything he put his mind to. He possessed a keen wit and a great sense of humor. Garrett loved to laugh!

At Deer Park High School, he participated in choir, golf, debate, one-act play, was a member of the Swing Choir, performed in Hello Texas, and played the lead role in the musical, “Grease.” After graduation, he served in the United States Marine Corps, and later worked numerous jobs, including being a great server at many restaurants in the Houston and Austin area, security at event venues in Austin, and his “dream job,” being a zip-line tour guide on Lake Travis.

Garrett Nissen overcame many setbacks in his life, not the least of which was a near fatal motorcycle accident. God used Garrett to have an impact on those he came in contact with. He never gave up trying to be a better person, Christian, and friend. Garrett will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

It's hard to choose one particular memory to post. How do you put a lifetime of memories onto a tribute wall? I remember the day he was born, only 6 weeks earlier than my own daughter. Garrett and his siblings grew up so close to my children. "The cousins" were always together. I remember lots of family dinners and birthdays and vacations. I remember skipping rocks at rivers, hiking mountain trails, skiing and playing in the snow. I remember canoe trips and fishing trips. I loved to make jerky for him, because he said my jerky was "the absolute best he ever had!" He also loved to "come to the country" so he could shoot guns and hang out. One of my favorite memories is the Christmas we had karaoke and we sang together. I thought when Garrett and Brittany sang "Baby, It's Cold Outside" it was as good as the real recording. One thing I appreciate most about him was his big heart and his willingness to tell you he loved you. I think Garrett told me he loved me just about every time I talked with him. I am so, so, so thankful he called the week of his death. I will forever cherish that phone call. I love you, too, Garrett! Love, Aunt Renee
