TJ, something late last night prompted me to "Google" search your name as I was thinking of you and you hadn't been on FB for awhile it seemed. I was shocked and saddened to see your beautiful picture pop up beside an obituary. You were a beautiful person inside out- such a sweet and kind spirit radiated from you. You were the most talented person I've ever known. Whether you were building a deck, making curtains, painting, making jewelry, or creating pottery pieces, you made them beautifully perfect. I am blessed to have been gifted several items made by you. I am thankful for the years you shared with me and all the hiking, camping, kayaking and traveling adventures we had together. You and these memories I hold dear - you were loved by so many, including me. I pray for your family and friends' comfort and strength during this time of loss. Rest easy now TJ and if it's true "all dogs go to heaven", please hug Katie, Ally and Sadie for me.
