Annan, we thank God for your amazing life. I was 10 years old when I came to know you in Puraswalkam. My mom wanted me to follow your footsteps, constantly reminding me about your hard work as a young student. I still remember the day you took me to the Bombay airport to me see me off to US. When you joined me in NY a little later, you found a place in a hotel at 104th and Broadway. You mentored me and encouraged me all my life. I thank you for being brother and a blessing to me. You are a close blood relative to me. Well, you accomplished every thing you wanted and lived the American dream. Still I marvel at your work ethic and laser focused descipline. Jiinny

I want to express my sympathy to all of you. I had great admiration for your father, for his skills and ability, for his compassion and caring, for his friendship. He meant a lot to David and me.. I remember the first time he came to our house in Dobbs Ferry. We were sitting around the dining room table. I was updating my teaching certificate at that time. He turned to me and said, "Wilma, you should study computer science instead." I responded that it was not an interest of mine and I didn't see much future for it. How wrong I was! God bless you all and give you His presence and peace during these difficult days. Wilma David

I and my wife Chitra know Dr. Paulraj your father and your mother for a long time . However when they moved Milltown NJ we became their neighbors and enjoyed their friendship. We even sang in the Christmas time in their Good News choir. Your father was amazing person and excelled in computer science and achieved many laurels as mentioned. He was a life time learner and great paintist too. I being a computer consultant admired his achievements. He lived an abundant life in Christ and left a behind a great legacy to follow. Cherish his memories and celebrate his life. Peace be with you all Richard Satyavan NJ
